

What are bacterial accesses that causes CAUTI?

1. Extra luminal – organisms from the patient's rectum or perineum migrate into the bladder from the outside of the catheter.
2. Intraluminal – organisms gain access to the internal lumen of the catheter due to failure to maintain a closed drainage system

